

(MED.) ON THE SOUTH SIDE OF CHICAGO

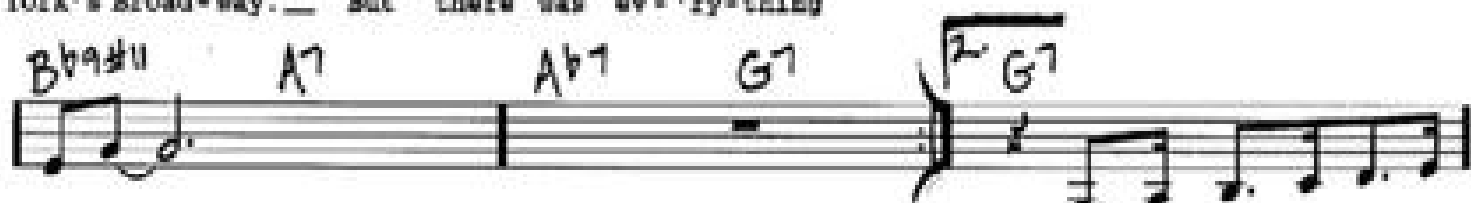

- PHIL ZELLER

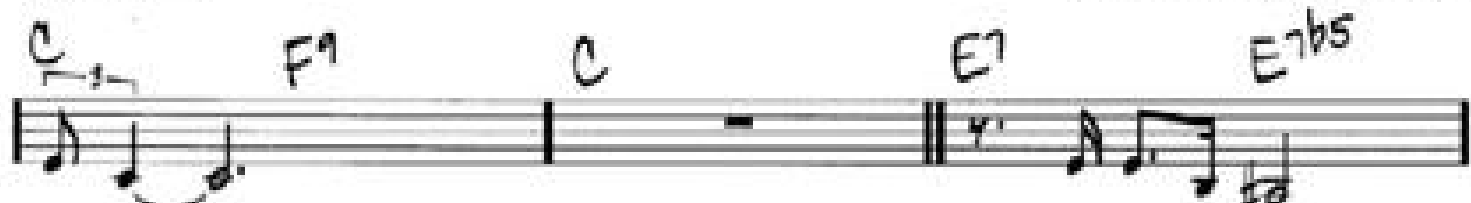

Fan-cy girls out work-in' hon-ky-tonks a-blaze, these were a part of the Twen-ty-first and Went-worth was its beat-ing heart, the place where ac-tion first New Or-leans was groov-y, Mem-phie light and gay, and who could put down New good old days — when I used to swing on the south side of Chi-got its start — back when jazz was king York's Broad-way. — But there was ev-'ry-thing

ca-go. — on the south side of Chi-ca-go. — I still can hear those sil-ver trum-pets blow-in' — in lit-tle plac-es filled — with peo-ple glow-in' —
